

with data and I think I have been accepted. I heard I was by the grapevine line. Briscilla Mullins' father was a Huguenot. His family fled from France at the time of the Reformation and a short time before the Massacre of St. Bartholomew's Day in about 1570 or so. His family took refuge in Dorking, England. They became Separatists and when Separatists were being persecuted the Molines family fled to Holland. Then they joined the Pilgrims becoming Pilgrims and came to Plymouth in the Mayflower, i.e., William Mullins (Molines) wife Alice
